

My plan for creating a “Home” for myself would be in the sense of imagining a life where I was an athletic professional. Growing up, I had always wanted to be a professional in some field of sport. Whether it be in the athletic basketball league or even the gaming leagues, I had dreamt of being one of them and making incredible amounts of money from doing something I love doing. As I sit down at the top of the hill, I lay back onto the ground and start dreaming of the life I could have had as an athlete. The camera points towards the thought bubbles that come out of my head. Inside the bubbles, there starts thoughts of professionals in different sports. As it finishes panning to the last athlete, it then pans back to me and I have a tear line going down my face. Lastly, as I close my eyes, the screen cuts to black. I am planning to incorporate dramatic music playing in the background.
